

PATTI DAMIANI
CERTIFIED RELATIONAL WISDOM INSTRUCTOR™
CERTIFIED RELATIONAL WISDOM COACH™
TRAVERSE CITY, MI

Patti Damiani is a Certified Relational Wisdom Instructor, Certified Life & Leadership Coach, Educator and Speaker. She is co-founder of Anchor Point Ministry, whose mission is assisting church leaders to grow well and wise through conflict as well as equipping them in developing disciple-making cultures. She has also served with The Navigators Train Develop Care team as a coaching specialist.

Patti's relational wisdom training is a direct outgrowth of her own life journey to learn and grow from her own relational failures and weaknesses. It was her passion to take these lessons and harvest the wisdom gained to equip others. It was in 2013, after praying and beginning to develop her own material, she received an email about RW360 and its targeted training in the exact same area! Such a God thing. It was a syncing of her desire with the already developed theologically sound teaching of RW360 that led her to become a RW360 instructor.

Patti has continued to train and coach using Relational Wisdom 360 to equip leader teams in local churches; Non-Profit Organizations; as well as secular business cultures. She utilizes corporate values and the DISC assessment to heighten both their Values Awareness and Self Awareness to help them navigate Relational Wisdom principles into the workplace. Patti also coaches individuals in implementing Relational Wisdom through Relational Wisdom Coaching.

Patti and her husband, Lou, have been married 51 years. They have four adult children and sixteen grandchildren and reside in Traverse City, Michigan.
