OVERVIEW

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHAT SKILLS CAN I LEARN THROUGH YOUR TRAINING?

RW360 training integrates the principles of relational wisdom (biblical emotional intelligence), relational peacemaking, coaching, Christian conciliation and shepherding.

WHERE SHOULD I START MY TRAINING?

All of RW360's training is based on two required foundational courses: Discovering Relational Wisdom and Relational Peacemaking. You may complete these two courses in either order and then proceed with higher levels of training.

HOW DO YOU DEFINE THESE SKILL SETS?

Relational Wisdom, in essence, is the desire and ability to obey Jesus' timeless command, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart ... and love your neighbor as yourself" (Matt. 22:37-39). To put it another way, relational wisdom (RW) is a theological paradigm that combines the gospel, the wisdom-principles of scripture and our God-given capacity for "emotional intelligence" into a discipleship paradigm for developing skills that strengthen relationships and prevent conflict (dig deeper here).

Relational Peacemaking is a systematic theology for resolving conflict and reconciling people. This training is based on Ken Sande's book, The Peacemaker, which has sold over 500,000 copies in 20 languages and is organized under four key principles (the "4 G's"): Glorify God, Get the Log Out of Your Own Eye, Gently Restore and Go and Be Reconciled (dig deeper here).

RW Life Coaching is a special form of “life coaching” that focuses on assisting other individuals to improve their relational skills in order to build stronger, deeper and more resilient relationships and to “get upstream of future conflict.”

Conflict Coaching assists others to resolve existing conflicts personally and privately by applying the principles of relational wisdom and peacemaking .

Christian Conciliation is a process for resolving disputes between Christians in a biblically faithful manner. This process may involve conflict coaching (advising individuals how to resolve a dispute personally and privately), mediation (meeting with both parties to improve understanding and facilitate a voluntary agreement) or arbitration (a trusted individual resolves a conflict by rendering a binding decision). These processes are described in detail in Guiding People Through Conflict.

RW Shepherding involves the application of RW, peacemaking, coaching or conciliation skills by church or ministry leaders. This training is especially relevant to pastors but is also useful for elders, deacons and anyone else in ministry leadership.

WHERE CAN I APPLY THESE SKILLS?

You can apply these principles to strengthen relationships and resolve conflicts in all areas of life, including church leadership, the workplace, marriage and parenting, and legal disputes ... and then teach and assist others to do the same!

IS THIS TRAINING DESIGNED ONLY FOR PROFESSIONALS?

No. Although professionals can improve their skills and credentials through this training, all of our foundational and basic courses are designed to teach relational skills that can be applied by non-professionals in everyday life.

WHAT ARE THE FOUR LEVELS OF YOUR TRAINING?

Foundational Personal Skills Training is designed to equip individuals to personally apply the principles of relational wisdom and peacemaking in their own families, churches and workplaces.

Basic Assisting Training is designed to equip individuals to assist others to learn and practice relational wisdom and peacemaking in their families, churches and work lives. This training is specifically designed for people who wish to serve on a church-based Peace Sower Team.

Advanced Assisting Training is designed to equip pastors, church, ministry and nonprofit leaders and workplace managers with enhanced skills that improve their job performance and enable them to lead and serve others more effectively. This level of training also qualifies individuals to charge fees for some of these services.

Certification Training is designed to provide ongoing training and accountability for individuals who are serving as coaches or conciliators at a professional level.

WHAT IS A PEACE SOWER TEAM?

Peace Sower Teams are comprised of volunteer instructors, coaches and conciliators who serve their church or ministry by equipping and assisting others to practice relational wisdom and peacemaking in their daily lives, thereby addressing relational issues before they require pastoral counseling or intervention (dig deeper).

ARE THERE OTHER PREREQUISITES FOR RW360 TRAINING?

All assisting courses have prerequisites, which are given at the top of each course page.

WHICH TYPE OF ASSISTING TRAINING IS BEST FOR ME?

As illustrated by the flow chart at the beginning of this section, our training program is designed to allow you to complete different types and levels of training one course at a time, which allows you learn a variety of interrelated concepts and decide whether it would be useful for you to move on to another type or higher level of training.

If you are involved in church or ministry leadership, we suggest that you follow the RW Shepherd track, which will introduce you to a variety of ways that you can apply relational wisdom, peacemaking and conciliation in your ministry. This track also allows you to simultaneously complete most of the requirements for an RW Instructor Certificate, which you can obtain with a little extra work and no additional fee.

If your primary interest is to teach relational wisdom and peacemaking, you should follow the RW Instructor track.

If you desire to serve others as a coach or conciliator, you should pursue the RW Coach track, which includes prerequisite courses for the RW Conciliator track.

CAN I COMPLETE COURSES SIMULTANEOUSLY?

Yes. Some of the requirements for different courses are the same, so as you complete one course, you are often satisfying the requirements for other courses, which will allow you to obtain additional training certificates more quickly.

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO COMPLETE RW360 COURSES?

As indicated in the chart at the end of this section, some courses can be completed in as little as 6 hours, while others can take up to 46 hours. All courses are self-paced, so you can move through them at your own pace.

CAN YOUR TRAINING RESOURCES BE USED IN SECULAR SETTINGS?

Yes. All of our resources are grounded on biblical principles and are most commonly used in church and ministry settings. Even so, we have developed a "values-based" version of our relational wisdom course (Exploring Relational Wisdom) so that it can be studied and taught in businesses, schools, hospitals, military bases, police departments and other secular settings, which can open the way for non-Christians to encounter the gospel (see RW and Evangelism).

ARE THERE STUDIES THAT SHOW HOW THIS TRAINING CAN BENEFIT BOTH EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYEES?

Yes. Studies have shown that this type of training produces more creative, loyal, fulfilled and productive employees who experience better career advancement. Employers can also see major benefits. As one study concluded, “When companies invest in the physical and relational wellness of their workers, returns on investment can range between $1.50 and $6.85 for every dollar spent on these types of programs.” (dig deeper)

HAS YOUR TRAINING BEEN APPROVED FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT?

Yes. Some of our training has been approved for continuing education for teachers, nurses, lawyers, counselors and social workers (see details here).

IS YOUR TRAINING AVAILABLE BOTH ONLINE AND LIVE?

All of our core training courses are available online at the RW Academy. Much of our training is also available through live seminars and webinars. Our foundational courses in relational wisdom and relational peacemaking are also available in video-based group study sets that can be used for Sunday school classes or live small group studies.

Our annual Sowing Peace Conference is a live gathering that provides opportunities to be inspired by nationally recognized speakers, to develop friendships with like-minded people and to form mentoring relationships with experienced individuals who can accelerate your growth as a shepherd, instructor, coach or conciliator.

IS ALL OF YOUR TRAINING CURRENTLY AVAILABLE?

No. Some of our courses are still under development and will be completed during 2023 and the first part of 2024. Course requirements and costs are subject to change as RW360 integrates new content.

HOW CAN I BRING THIS TRAINING INTO MY CHURCH OR ORGANIZATION?

It is usually wise to personally test drive our training before you try to promote it more widely. Therefore, we suggest that you complete one of our foundational courses on your own to make sure it is compatible with your organization’s values and goals. Better yet, invite a small group of others to join you in a study so that several people can testify to your organization’s leadership about the benefits of this training.

WHAT DO I DO IF I STILL HAVE QUESTIONS?

If you still have questions about our training, please feel free to seek more information by emailing us at mail@rw360.org or by calling 406-294-6806.

We look forward helping you select the training track that will best equip you to serve the Lord by modeling the life-changing relational and peacemaking principles taught throughout the Bible.

- Several courses have some of the same study requirements, so the time and cost to complete additional higher level courses is often less than indicated in this chart.
- Cost covers registration fees and does not include cost of books.
- Study hours are approximate and will vary from person to person. For example, although most people take about 10 hours to complete the Discovering Relational Wisdom course, others have invested 30 or more hours in the course as they read all of the additional optional articles and write longer answers to application questions.
- Since higher level courses require the completion of lower level prerequisites, the total investment for higher level courses is the sum of all the related costs and time requirements. For example:
 - The total cost for Basic RW Instructor training is $193 ($49+$49 $95) and takes approximately 55 hours to complete (10+14+31)
 - The total cost for Basic RW Coach training is $440 ($49+$49+$95+$95+$145+$145) and takes approximately 92 hours to complete (10+14+6+9.5+25+28).

Note, however, that 24 hours of the time invested in an Instructor Certificate automatically applies to the time required for a Coach Certificate. Many of these hours would also apply to RW Shepherd and RW Conciliator training as well.

DISCOVERING RELATIONAL WISDOM™ CERTIFICATE

Cost: $49 | Study Time: 10 hours

Relational wisdom (RW), in essence, is your ability to love God with all your heart and to love your neighbor as yourself ... in other words, RW is simply your ability to live out the two Great Commandments as summarized by Jesus in Matthew 22:37-39.

In modern terms, relational wisdom may be defined as a biblically-grounded, gospel-driven form of emotional intelligence that enables you to discern emotions, interests and abilities in yourself and others, to interpret this information in the light of God's Word, and to use these insights to manage your responses and relationships constructively.

One of the easiest ways to begin improving your relational wisdom is to go through RW360's online course, Discovering Relational Wisdom, which is available for $49 through the RW Academy. You can complete the course on your own, but studying with a spouse, friend or co-worker makes the training more enjoyable and life-changing.

Another way you could study these concepts is to lead an eight-week Discovering Relational Wisdom group study. Group study sets are available in both a faith-based \(Christian\) version, which is designed for Sunday school or a home study group, and a values-based \(secular\) version, which is designed for use in the workplace and other secular settings for professional development.

No special training is required to lead a group study since all of the actual teaching is provided by video (DVD or flash drive). As a moderator, your role is simply to host meetings (in person or by phone or video conferencing), play the videos and lead discussions using the application questions in the course materials.

You can use these resources to teach relational wisdom to every person in your church, ministry or business as a way to strengthen relationships, improve unity and teamwork and equip people with skills that enable them to "get upstream of conflict."

For more information on how to host a live seminar or webinar to introduce your church, ministry, business, school or other organization to these concepts, click here.

This training will strengthen your ability to live out the peacemaking concepts of confession, repentance, correction, forgiveness, negotiation, mediation and arbitration to resolve conflicts in a way that honors God, promotes justice, restores relationships and, most importantly, demonstrates the reconciling power of the gospel.

One of the easiest ways to begin improving your peacemaking skills is to go through RW360's online course, Relational Peacemaking, which is scheduled for release through the RW Academy in April of 2023. You can complete the course on your own, but studying with a spouse, friend or co-worker makes the training more enjoyable and life-changing.

Another way you could study these concepts is to lead a twelve-week Relational Peacemaking group study. Group study will be available in a faith-based (Christian) version, which is designed for Sunday school or a home study group, and eventually in a values-based (secular) version, which is designed for use in the workplace and other secular settings for professional development.

No special training is required to lead a group study since all of the actual teaching is provided by video (DVD or flash drive). As a moderator, your role is simply to host meetings (in person or by phone or video conferencing), play the videos and lead discussions using the application questions in the course materials.

You can use these resources to teach biblical conflict resolution to every person in your church, ministry or business to strengthen relationships, improve unity and teamwork and equip people with skills that enable them to "get upstream of conflict."
