

I AM A VERY GOOD BOY!
AND I'VE BEEN ADOPTED
INTO A WONDERFUL FAMILY!

"HI, I'M COOPER!"

I was the last puppy in my litter to be adopted and was very lonely without my brothers and sisters. But my new owners saw my picture and my plea in the paper, and their hearts went out to me. When they came to see me, it was love at first sight in both directions. They took me in their arms, I licked their faces and that was it.

Since then, my happiness and peace have been wrapped up in one thing: I am forever loved, forever adopted, forever secure. Day after day, my heart is thrilled and my identity confirmed by these reassuring words, "You are a very good boy!"

What about you?

What is your identity? Do you feel love and peace and security every day? If not, there is a way for you to find even greater joy and love than Cooper has experienced.

Because there is someone even more loving than Cooper's owners whose heart is going out to you at this very moment. His name is Jesus. His arms are open wide, his love is overflowing, and he is offering to adopt you into his family today.

All it takes on your part is to recognize your need for him and the steps he has taken to save you. It's as simple as saying and sincerely believing this prayer:

"Jesus, I need you. I've lived too long away from you. I've done a lot of things wrong, and I realize this has put a huge wall between you and me that would separate us for eternity.

But today I am choosing to believe the good news of the gospel. The good news that you are the Son of God, that you lived a perfect life and yet were willing to die on a cross to pay for all my sins.

But it didn't end there. I also believe that you rose from the dead to conquer death, and that as I now trust in you as my Savior, my sins are washed away and your perfect record becomes my perfect record, and I am loved, adopted and secure forever in your family.

As a result, I believe that I have a new identity that is infinitely better than being a 'very good boy.' My identity and my destiny are now confirmed by biblical promises like these:

- 'For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life' (John 3:16).
- 'God sent forth his Son so that we might receive adoption as sons' (Gal. 4:4-5).
- 'If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away, the new has come' (2 Cor. 5:17)."

To learn more about the privileges and responsibilities that go along with your adoption, visit www.rw360.org/adopted.